Join the Worldwide Movement on June 16th to Boycott the Recession Groundswell Begins on BoycottRecession.com

(PRWEB) June 16, 2009 -- People around the world are uniting to take back control of their lives, their businesses and their dreams on BoycottRecession.com (www.boycottrecession.com). The newly launched website is the home base of a rapidly growing movement to help people get past the news of the day, the perils of the economic crisis, and come out of the recession more successful than ever before. Over a thousand people already have signed the BoycottRecession.com petition and are moving forward in their lives and businesses by sharing hundreds of their success stories in video, audio and text format to spread the word that the recession is more of a state of mind than a reality.

The man behind the movement is Blair Singer; author, speaker, personal and professional development mentor, and co-founder of SalesPartners Worldwide™. Singer, like many of his SalesPartners colleagues, got sick and tired of watching individuals and business owners fall victim to the doom and gloom economic news. Fed up watching the recession become an unnecessary reality, Blair and his team decided to do something about it. So they launched BoycottRecession.com and the worldwide movement to stop the recession in its tracks--person-by-person. On June 16th, Blair's Boycott Recession team members will be on radio, TV and going business-to-business nationwide, doing whatever it takes to get the Boycott Recession word out!

Blair knows first-hand how this works. He overcame his own personal and professional recession years ago by learning how to master his "Little Voice"--that negative voice between our ears that holds us back. Through his "Little Voice" Mastery techniques, Blair has helped thousands of people become their best.

The information on the BoycottRecession.com site is free to anyone who wants to join the movement. "The knowledge can be life changing," Singer said. He encourages everyone who has had it with the recession to visit the site, sign the petition, check out the videos, read the articles, live by the code of honor and tell their friends to do the same. The site is intended to inspire others by sharing success stories no matter how big or small.

"If you're really fed up. Get off your duff and do something about it. Don't wait for the government, Wall Street or the banking system to bail you out. Solutions start by winning the battle between your ears. Boycott the recession through sales, good business practice and doing more with less," Singer said. "With enough people saying 'NO' to the recession, the recession will be over," Singer said.
